After view

Could it be better? The answer is of course yes, but this auction weekend in Malmö was as close to perfect as it could possibly be. It was not only the visitors, foreign as well as local, but also the lovely and extremely positive atmosphere that made it. Although the thermometer didn't manage to exceed 10 degrees, the weather was fantastic and contributed to the merry mood.

We have said it several times before but it is worth repeating – the Swedish stamp market is extremely strong! For all those of you who keep up with the market it must be very interesting to study the results this time. We just mention the two “Mother Dies” that sold for new record prices.

Apart from the Swedish section the newly discovered German “Airmail Find” went according to our expectations very high. Almost all went to a collector leaving several disappointed German dealers. Most of them had to leave the auction room without a single sheet. The collector who bought the big British Commonwealth collection was happy as a child although he had to pay 2,5 times the starting price.

Probably all of you have been aware that just before the auction we participated in the international exhibition Portugal 2010 in Lisbon. Now we know that it was the correct decision due to the enormous response. No less than 50 people utilized the possibility of the viewing we offered. Where and especially when will the next FIP exhibition be in Europe again??

For next spring auction the “Citytunnel” will be ready and will make it even easier for our foreign guests to visit us. Actually we are very proud of our own “subway”, which will connect Malmö with Copenhagen.

Halloween and Christmas are getting closer very fast, enjoy those holidays and take care!
