After view

It almost feels like it was yesterday we wrote the preface to this our just ended autumn auction. "Time flies" is an expression that many of us use often but for our team it is really justified and reality right now. Besides our preparations for the auction we have also managed to fulfil our commitments with the successful exhibition BALTEX 2014 & Seven Nations Challenge the last weekend in August as well as the release of Facit Special 2015, with our "national hero" Zlatan Ibrahimovic on the front page.

The warm and friendly atmosphere in the auction room was not only due to the fantastic late summer temperature but also to the fact that we knowingly are trying to create and maintain a "personal auction room". This was really confirmed this time with a lot of international visitors mixed with local and national faithful clients.

The first day started traditionally with the Nordic countries, except Sweden, but it is quite a long time since we have seen such action in the bidding as this time. We have been waiting a long time for some new Danish collectors at the highest level and now we "smell" that something is going on. The handful of younger Danish dealers might be involved in this as well as they are a very important international force in our business.

Traditionally the second day was followed by Sweden and the non-Scandinavian countries. The fantastic 6 Skilling Banco stamp in the rare black grey shade which we pinpointed in our preface ended after intense bidding to a telephone bidder. Once again the number of bids in the book for the Chinese lots hit some kind of record, perhaps not so surprising due to the 1,3 billion inhabitants? However, this auction's most expensive lot was the All World collection in the beautiful old Schaubek album collected during a lifetime. The price nearly doubled and ended at €38.000!

During the coming two months we will participate with a stand at two events in Denmark; Sydfrimex 14 and the stamp fair in Frederiksberg (Copenhagen). In late November we are participating in Nordia 2014 in Lillestrøm (Oslo), Norway. In addition we will also attend the ASDA Anniversary show in New York late October.

Take care!
