After view

Once again we are very happy to have concluded an auction during these difficult circumstances and once again with live auction bidding. We realize that this modern digital method is here to stay! Also, when the pandemic is finally over and everything is more or less back to normal, everybody will probably have adapted and become comfortable with this system. We are of course missing all our visitors in our so widely appreciated "personal auction room", but we will find new ways to attract you to return.

Many areas stood out and advanced collectors as well as exhibitors showed that they are willing to spend a large amount of money to buy the item that they have been hunting for many years. Sometimes when the opportunity arises, it is "once in a lifetime". This is what we think was the case in the Danish as well as in the Finnish sections this time.

After our auction in May this year we could confirm that quarantined philatelists need stamps to keep themselves busy, which once again was acknowledged with "Around the World in 80 Collections". Remarkable prices were achieved for smaller as well as for significantly more comprehensive old-time collections.

Every good thing must come to an end, unfortunately even our sale of the outstanding Gummesson collection of Finland. Saturday the 26th of September 2020 the hammer fell on the very last item in a series of seven auctions with separate auction catalogues. And now we want to thank the Gummesson family for entrusting us this fantastic project! But all collectors of Finland will find elsewhere in this list of prices of realized that we will offer another interesting Finnish Gold Collection in the spring...

As you all probably already know Nordia 2020 is cancelled until further notice. It was not enough to postpone it three months until the beginning of December, the corona pandemic was stronger and more persistent than us and what we could have imagined. But we have not given up yet, further information will follow.

Enjoy the autumn and stay healthy!
